

CAUGHT IN THE EAST WIND

5 0 1

Chapter 1 by Owen O'Neill

"This is a message from your friendly directors of the facility. It seems there has been a break of some sort in security, so we urge you to stay inside your pods until further notice."

A break in the silence.

A sound.

Human communication, something unknown to our people due to required silence except for a short hour when our electricity turned off.

We all knew what was happening.

They had come.

And they were with the directors.

We were ready.

But we were scared of what was to come nevertheless.

And now it begins.
